Notes from the Co-Director . . . . .

I last directed Wizard over 20 years ago (that was a stunning thing to realize!), and I've wanted to bring the show to Jonesboro for a while now. It seems that the time was just waiting for me, because the right cast, and in abundance, suddenly appeared for the auditions and overwhelmed all of us on the production staff with their talent. Musicals, which here for the last several years have been presented in March due to many scheduling challenges, have their own hurdles, including keeping a cast together during 4-6 weeks of down time between auditions (early November) and full-on rehearsals (Jan. 2). Essentially, every year, we have 7 or 8 weeks to put these complex works together; this cast has shown up not just for added vocal and choreography rehearsals but in large numbers for set construction days. They have been remarkable in so many ways, and the show you'll see is the result of a team pulling together and putting their hearts and work out there to create a labor of love.

Thanks to Jennifer, my partner in this effort, for her talent, patience, calm demeanor, dedication, and hard work. No one could ask for anyone better to share the directing duties! Thanks also to Anne Marie and Izzy for the creativity and hard work on her choreography; and

Notes from the Co-Director . . . .

I think we are all a little like Dorothy: we go searching for our heart's desire only to find we already have it. It is there in our own town, our own community, our friends, family, and most importantly, God. Nevertheless, we still search because we don't see what's right in front of us. We all need the sweet reminder that this story brings: there is no place like home. It's not the building but relationships, the people in our lives that give our lives meaning and purpose, those people that walk through life with us.

Karen, I admire your vast theatre knowledge and your creative mind, and I treasure your friendship. I am so thankful for this opportunity. Thank you for believing in me. I am honored that you asked me to direct this show alongside you.

Every member of this cast has found a very special place in my heart. Thank you so much for all of your hard work and dedication. I never tire of watching you perform! You guys are amazing.

Special thanks to all of the crew. None of this could be possible without you.

It is particularly special to be here, and be a part of this show, alongside four of my own kids! Rachel, Esther, Isaiah, and Ezekiel, thanks for sharing this with me. It is a dream come true to be able to do something I love so much with you. Jeremiah, I know you weren't in this one but I can't wait to do shows with you! Thank you to my husband, Christopher, for supporting us even through the late nights and long hours that theatre requires. You will never know how much it means to me. Thank you, Mary, for everything you do for our family. I could never do all of this without you. I am immensely grateful.

Most of all, thank you, Jesus; You are the desire of my heart, and I pray everything I do glorifies Your Name.
